

Leah Tobin, M.D.

EDUCATION

Memorial Medical Center, Savannah, GA, Family Medicine Residency, 1999
Medical College of Virginia, Richmond, VA, Doctor of Medicine, 1996
College of William and Mary, Williamsburg, VA, BS-Biology, 1991

LICENSE AND CERTIFICATION

Board Certified, Family Medicine, 1999
License to Practice Medicine and Surgery, Commonwealth of Virginia, 2001
License to Practice Medicine and Surgery, Georgia, 1997
Diplomate of the National Board of Medical Examiners, 1997
Drug Enforcement Agency license, 1997
Advanced Cardiac Life Support, provider, 1996, 1998, 2001
Advanced Pediatric Life Support, Provider- instructor potential, 1998
Advanced Trauma Life Support, provider, 1997
American Medical Association, member, 1992 to present
American Academy of Family Physicians, member, 1996 to present
Georgia Academy of Family Physicians, member, 1996 to present
Southern Medical Association, member, 1999 to present

AWARDS, HONORS AND COMMENDATIONS

Primary Care Physician Work Group, 2004
TSPMG, Physician of the Year, Nominee, 2003
TSPMG, Patient Advocate of the Year, Nominee, 2003
TSPMG, Primary Care Physician of the Year, Nominee, 2003
TSPMG, Physician of the Year Nominee, 2002
TSPMG, Primary Care Physician of the Year, Nominee, 2002
TSPMG, Physician Patient Advocate of the Year, Nominee, 2002
Outstanding Primary Care Provider, Highest patient Satisfaction- MHUMC- 2001
Outstanding Medical Provider Commendation, Memorial Medical Center, Savannah,
GA. Only physician provider, resident or attending commended, 1996
Appleton and Lange Student leadership Award, 1996

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

Primary Care Physician, North Fulton Family Medicine, PC, Alpharetta, Georgia, July 2005 to present.
Primary Care Physician, The Southeast Permanente Medical Group, Glenlake Medical Offices, (Kaiser Permanente), October 2001- June 2005
Primary Care Task Force, Southeast Permanente Medical Group, 2004
TSPMG - physician educator, Basic Medical Coding 2003
Primary Care Physician, Memorial Health- Richmond Hill, Richmond Hill, GA- 1999
-2001
Team Physician, Richmond Hill High School Athletics, 1999-2001
Team Physician, Windsor High School Athletic, 1997-2000
Moonlighting, Memorial After Hours Clinic- evening walk-in patient care facility- April

1998-2001

Moonlighting, Department of Surgery- on-call coverage for Level One Trauma Center
And In-patient service- 1998/1999

Revised patient education handouts for Well Child visits/ developmental milestones-
Department of Pediatrics/ Department of Family Medicine- 1996-1997

Curriculum Committee- Department of Family Medicine- Revised rotations for residents
And medical students, 1996-1999

Preceptor, Department of Family Medicine- supervised medical students and nurse practitioner students in the clinic and in-patient setting, 1996-1999

Implemented changes in record keeping and charting system in the Family Practice
Center to better allow monitoring of preventative services, 1998-99

Implemented new system of assignment and continuity care for obstetrics patients in the Family Practice Center, 1998-1999

Presented Noon Conferences on pediatric fever, managing difficult patients, victims of abuse, oral contraceptives and diabetic management, 1996-1999

RESEARCH

Johnson and Johnson Consumer Products, Skillman, NJ- 1989. Consumer preference, Competitor intelligence and market research. Bench research on Vitamin A and its isomers for internal publication.

Forsyth Dental Center, Boston, MA-1991-1992. Under the direction of Shelby Kashket, PhD., conducted lab research on formation and prevention of dental caries using various food additives. Sponsored by major food companies including Nabisco and Warner-Lambert for internal publication.

Memorial Family Practice Center, Savannah, GA- 1998-1999. Co-author patient oriented outcomes based project on management of diabetic patients. Investigated the influence of physician contact and continuity of care on hemoglobin A1C levels, blood pressure and end organ damage in patients of a community based Family Medicine residency program. Presented at Memorial Medical Center Resident
Research Day (Savannah, GA- June 1999) and Southern Medical Association
(Dallas, TX – November 1999)